

JOIN THE TEAM

CONSULTING & BUSINESS ANALYSIS INTERN (Persian & English speaker)

25-35 hours per week | Vienna, Austria

Atieh International is an independent, Vienna-based strategy and management consulting firm. Our focus is to provide essential strategic intelligence for key business decisions in emerging markets in West Asia, with a special focus on Iran. Our main services include:

- Strategy and Risk Management, Human Capital Consulting
- Talent Acquisition, Management and Development
- Learning and Development Strategies and Solutions
- Developing Intercultural and Global Team Competence

To support our local team, we are looking for an intern in Strategic Consulting & Business Reports.

Responsibilities

- Researching and gathering required information
- Initial write-up of reports and preparing documents as required
- Translating and analyzing data and information
- Managing projects within timeframe and resources
- Supporting all projects within company, as and when required on a priority basis

Required qualifications and skills

- Strong command of oral and written Persian; ability to draft documents and reports
- Good command of oral and written English; German an added benefit
- Completed undergraduate degree, preferably in a business-related field
- Relevant experience in a consulting, business-related or research field
- Good skills in Microsoft Office (Word, Power Point, Excel)
- Excellent people skills, ability to work independently with strong work discipline and ethics

Benefits

- Gaining knowledge in strategic consulting and analysis
- Experience in working with emerging markets with key players in the field
- Strong learning and development opportunities with an international focus
- Good salary and possibility for junior consulting position after an initial starting period

Interested applicants should send their CV / LinkedIn profile and a covering letter explaining why they feel suited for the position to info@atiehinternational.com by 15 DECEMBER 2017.

We look forward to hearing from you,
Atieh International Recruitment Team